

SCDHSC0045

Lead practice that promotes the safeguarding of individuals

Overview

This standard identifies the requirements associated with safeguarding which must permeate all your work with individuals. The standard addresses the need to establish your own understanding and that of others about safeguarding and what you or others must do in cases of actual or potential harm or abuse. The requirements also include supporting the development of relationships that promote safeguarding and leading practices that support the rights, inclusion and wellbeing of individuals and keeping themselves safe.

Scope/range related to performance criteria

The details in this field are explanatory statements of scope and/or examples of possible contexts in which the NOS may apply; they are not to be regarded as range statement required for achievement of the NOS.

Note: Where an individual finds it difficult or impossible to express their own preferences and make decisions about their life, achievement of this standard may require the involvement of advocates or others who are able to represent the views and best interests of the individual.

Where there are language differences within the work setting, achievement of this standard may require the involvement of interpreters or translation services.

Active participation is a way of working that regards individuals as active partners in their own care or support rather than passive recipients. Active participation recognises each individual's right to participate in the activities and relationships of everyday life as independently as possible.

A person's background is the individual's unique mix of personal experiences, history, culture, beliefs, preferences, family relationships, informal networks and community

Communication may include using the individual's preferred spoken language, the use of signs, the use of symbols or pictures, writing, objects of reference, communication passports, other non verbal forms of communication, human and technological aids to communication

Harm and abuse may include neglect; physical, emotional and sexual abuse; financial abuse; bullying; self harm; reckless behaviour

The individual is the person you support or care for in your work

Key people are those who are important to an individual and who can make a difference to his or her well-being. Key people may include family, friends, carers and others with whom the individual has a supportive relationship.

Others are your colleagues and other professionals whose work contributes to the individual's well-being and who enable you to carry out your role

Person centred approaches are those that fully recognise the uniqueness of the individual and establish this as the basis for the planning and delivery of care and support

Relationships may include those developed over a period of time or those established in a situation where immediate care or support is required

Safeguarding is working with individuals, children, young people and their
