Support individuals to move into new living environments

Overview

This standard identifies the requirements when supporting individuals to move and settle into new living environments. This includes preparing individuals to move, supporting them to settle and then working with them to review the impact of their new environment on their well being

Performance criteria

You must be able to:

Support individuals to prepare to move into new living environments

- P1 support the individual and key people to communicate their views and feelings about leaving their current living arrangements and moving into a new living environment
- P2 support the individual and key people to plan the stages of the move and ways to enable these to happen as smoothly as possible
- P3 provide the individual and key people with information about the new living environment in understandable and accessible formats
- P4 support the individual to reflect on the impact the move is likely to have on them and their personal relationships
- P5 support the individual to address any feelings of loss and any impact on their identity or self-esteem arising from the change
- P6 support the individual to identify any risks associated with the move
- P7 support the individual to recognise the personal strengths and resources they have that will help them deal with and adapt to the change
- P8 work with the individual, key people and others to organise preparatory visits to the new living environment
- P9 work with the individual, key people and those within the new environment to plan the move, ensuring that this takes account of the anticipated stages and the individual's preferences and needs
- P10 work with the individual, key people and others to ensure that any legal and statutory requirements are met

Support individuals to settle into their new living environment

You must be able to:

- P11 work with the individual to agree their priorities and preferences for settling into the new living environment
- P12 support the individual to familiarise themselves with the new environment and the daily living arrangements there
- P13 support the individual to communicate approaches or activities that could help them adjust to living with other people in the new living environment
- P14 support key people to remain involved in the life of the individual as much as possible
- P15 support the individual to participate in health, social, cultural and spiritual activities in the new environment that suit their preferences and needs
- P16 work with the individual and key people to make adjustments that will help make the individual more comfortable in the new environment

SCDHSC0383

Support individuals to move into new living environments

P17 agree with the individual and key people how they can raise any issues and concerns they have about the move or its impact

P18 work with key people to address any specific needs they themselves may have arising from the individual's move

Support individuals to review the impact of their new environment on their well-being

You must be able to:

P19 agree with the individual and key people how the impact of the new environment on the individual's well-being will be reviewed

P20 support the individual and key people to identify where there have been positive changes in the individual's well-being and where there are concerns

P21 support the individual, key people and others to agree what needs to happen to ensure that gains in the well-being of the individual are maintained

P22 support the individual and key people to plan ways to deal with problems identified

P23 support the individual and key people to agree any additional resources, facilities and support that are required

P24 where it is concluded that the new environment is unsuitable for the individual, contribute to initiating plans for alternative arrangements

P25 complete records and reports about the processes and outcomes of the review in accordance with legal and work setting requirements
